CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI
SHARAN SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 13-07-2017 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner,

learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant
and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Complaint Case No. 143 of 2015, disclosing offences under Sections 498A/324/307/379/341/504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is the husband of the Opposite Party No. 2. The matrimonial discord appears to be the root cause of lodging of the First Information Report.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that he is ready to keep the Opposite Party No. 2 with full love and dignity.

There is no reason for this Court to feel that if granted anticipatory bail, the petitioner shall flee from the course of investigation or trial.

It is submitted that the petitioner shall present himself before the police as and when required and there is no chance that he will tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses.

Considering the nature of accusation and submission advanced on behalf of the petitioner, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioner, Vikash Mehta, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Uda Kishunganj, in connection with complaint Case No. 143 of 2015, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Court, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
