The petitioner is the husband of the informant. The matrimonial discord appears to be the root cause of lodging of the First Information Report.

ready to keep the Opposite Party No. 2 with full love and dignity.

There is no reason for this Court to feel that if granted anticipatory bail, the petitioner shall flee from the course of investigation or trial.

It is submitted that the petitioner shall present himself before the Police as and when required and there is no chance that he will tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses.

Considering the nature of accusation and submission advanced on behalf of the petitioner, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioner, Rohit Raj @ Md. Rehan, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Patna, in connection with Mahila Police Station Case No. 29 of 2016, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to
