CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 14-12-2017

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. The writ petition has been filed for the following reliefs –

“(A) For quashing and setting aside the order passed by the Licensing Authority-cum-Sub-Divisional Officer, Banka vide Memo No. 1127 dated 04.10.2012 contained in Annexure-1 whereby and whereunder licence of the petitioner’s Fair Price Shop bearing no. 03/91 has been cancelled and quashing and setting aside the order dated 23.02.2016 passed by the learned Collector, Banka in E.C. Appeal No. 144/12-13 contained in Annexure-4 whereby and whereunder appeal filed by the petitioner against the cancellation order has been rejected.

(B) A mandamus commanding the Respondents to restore the petitioner’s licence as before and to make allotment for the petitioner’s shop.

(C) Any other relief or reliefs for which petitioner may be found entitled in the fact and circumstances of the present case may be granted".

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner makes a short submission to assail the impugned order on the ground that a copy of the enquiry report was not made available to the petitioner and he was never confronted with the same with an opportunity of being heard or adducing evidence in that regard. A specific stand has been taken in paragraph 9 of the writ petition that the impugned order of cancellation of licence has been passed without providing a copy of the enquiry report to the petitioner, though the same had been relied upon in the impugned order. Such infirmity could not be cured in the appeal as well.

4. None appears on behalf of the respondents. The stand of the petitioner with regard to non-supply of enquiry report has not been controverted, as no counter affidavit has been filed till date.

5. In the above view of the matter, this Court is satisfied that non-supply of the enquiry report to the petitioner has resulted in violation of natural justice and thus the decision making process stands vitiated. The order passed by the Licensing Authority-cum-Sub-Divisional Officer, Banka vide Memo No. 1127 dated 04.10.2012 (Annexure-1) and the appellate order dated 23.02.2016 passed by the learned Collector, Banka in E.C. Appeal Case No. 144/12-13 (Annexure-4) are hereby quashed and the matter remanded to the Sub-Divisional Officer, Banka for taking decision afresh in the matter after supplying a copy of the enquiry report to the petitioner and granting an opportunity of hearing in accordance with law. Supplies to the petitioner shall be restored without delay until fresh orders are passed by the respondent no. 3.

6. It is made clear that in case the stand of the petitioner denying receipt of the enquiry report prior to order of cancellation being passed is found to be incorrect, the respondents shall be at liberty to approach this Court for recall of this judgment.

7. The writ petition stands allowed as above.
