CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN
ORAL ORDER

4 15-03-2017 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Although a complaint has been made by the petitioner as against the opposite parties for violating the order of this Court in C.W.J.C.No. 4614/2010 but when taken up, Mr. Dhurjati Kumar Prasad, GP-14, submits that the contempt application is not worthy of being entertained, inasmuch as it has been luxuriously filed after a lapse of five years since passing of the order by this Court and with nothing on record to demonstrate whether any representation was filed by the petitioner before the authority concerned. He further submits that in so far as the issue raised in the present contempt application is concerned, there is again nothing on record to show that the department while considering the case of Saw Mills for grant of licence has ignored the claim of the petitioner.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and considering the circumstances existing, no case for indulgence is made out. The contempt application is disposed of.
