CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN
ORAL ORDER

2 02-02-2017 Mr. Amarendra Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners, Mr. Vinay Kirti Singh, learned Senior Counsel for the Holding Company, Mr. Harendra Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for the Power Transmission Company Ltd. and the learned counsel for the State are present.

The petitioner while praying for removal of the electric wire stated to be running over his residential land also prays for payment of compensation amount.

The law in this regard now stands settled in the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of the Power Grid Corporation of India Ltd. vs. Century Textiles & Industries Ltd. & ors., arising out of Civil Appeal No. 10951/2016 and analogous cases.

The similar issue having been raised before the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court without interfering with the right of Power Companies for such installation has granted liberty to the land holders to approach the District Judge for payment of compensation.

In view of the liberty so granted to the land holders present at paragraph 26 of the judgment of the Supreme Court, this writ petition stands disposed of accordingly with a liberty to the petitioner to approach the District Judge for the relief prayed herein, if so advised.
