CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MUNGESHWAR
SAHOO
ORAL ORDER

3 27-01-2017 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Perused the impugned order dated 24.11.2015 and order dated 06.11.2012 passed by learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bihar Sharif passed in Matrimonial Case No.151 of 2012.

It appears that the husband-petitioner was directed to pay Rs.5000/- as monthly maintenance under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act by order dated 6.11.2012. Earlier the petitioner was paying the said amount. Subsequent, he stopped the payment. Therefore, the application has been filed by the wife-respondent for realization of the arrears of the maintenance amount and the Court below by the impugned order has directed the husband to pay the same and for realization of the same, distress warrant has been issued.

Admittedly, the petitioner as has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner has stopped the payment of the maintenance amount as directed by the Court below. Therefore, in my opinion, no case for interference in exercise of supervisory jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is made out.

Thus, this Civil Misc. application is dismissed.
