CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 13-02-2017 Heard Sri Arun Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned A.C. to Govt. Pleader – 9 as well as Sri Chandra Bhushan Das, learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of respondent/Bihar Staff Selection Commission.

In the present writ petition, primarily, the petitioner is aggrieved with the advertisement, which was published in the year 2014, for the purposes of appointment of Lower Division Clerk

(L.D.C.) and Upper Division Clerk (U.D.C.).

Learned counsel for the petitioner accepts that after advertisement, applications were entertained and examination was also conducted, however; he submits that subsequently, the examination has already been cancelled.

The Court is of the opinion that once pursuant to advertisement, applications were entertained and examination was conducted, there is no reason to examine the correctness of the advertisement. If subsequently any cause arises, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail appropriate remedy.

The writ petition stands disposed of.

(Rakesh Kumar, J.)
