CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

03/ 22-03-2017

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the victim has renewed the prayer for bail in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 304B, 201, 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code and 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

The prosecution case is of killing the daughter of the informant within one year of marriage.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 11.02.2014 and trial has still not concluded. Moreover, the victim was suffering from mental ailment and she was being provided medical assistance and above all the case does not come within the purview of section 304B IPC since there is no accusation of making demand of dowry.

The report of learned Additional Sessions Judge-X, Saran at Chapra dated 2nd of March, 2017 at Flag 'A' reflects that prosecution evidence has been closed. The defence has to examine its witnesses. However, defence has made prayer to examine the doctor, who treated the victim. The report stipulates that the trial of Sessions Trial No. 473 of 2014 will be disposed of within one or two months.

In view of the report of the learned trial court, this Court is not inclined to revise the earlier order. Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is rejected.

It is expected from the learned trial court to conclude the trial within time frame submitted to this Court.
