CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 24-03-2017 Heard Smt. Asha Kumari, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Ajay Kumar Sinha, learned counsel for the Respondent/Allahabad Bank.

The petitioner has approached this Court, invoking its writ jurisdiction under Article-226 of the Constitution of India, with a prayer to direct the Respondents to consider his case for appointment as Clerk in Allahabad Bank on the basis of panel, which was prepared pursuant to an examination held in the year 2008. In the writ petition itself, it has been indicated that after preparation of panel 25 candidates have not joined and, as such, the petitioner wanted that the candidate from the waiting list may be accommodated. In paragraph-10 of the writ petition, a categorical statement has been made that a fresh vacancy has been advertised.

Sri Ajay Kumar Sinha, learned counsel for the Respondent/Allahabad Bank, by way of referring to a Judgment reported in (2013) 12 SCC 243, submits that the petitioner has got no enforceable right.

Considering the facts and circumstances, particularly the fact that though panel was prepared but subsequently a fresh advertisement was published. The life of the panel had come to an end and, as such, no relief can be granted.

The writ petition stands dismissed.
