CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

2      20-02-2017                      Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Panjwara Police Station Case No. 08 of 2016, disclosing offences under Sections 353, 379, 147, 148, 149, 341, 201 and 411 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there is general and omnibus allegation against these petitioners, who happen to be lady, and no specific overt act is attributed to them. Altogether, thirteen persons have been named in the F.I.R. and 20-25 persons are said to have been unknown persons. The nature and manner of allegation leveled in the F.I.R., itself goes to show that these three old ladies, who are of clean antecedent, have unfortunately been implicated in this case for their no fault. No case is made out against these petitioners in order to make them liable to be punished in any manner. Hence, these petitioners deserve the sympathetic view of this Court and may be granted the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Banka, in connection with Panjwara Police Station Case No. 08 of 2016, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
