CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

5 20-06-2017 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Raxaul Police Station Case No. 198 of 2016, disclosing offences under Sections 406, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B, 387 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners and no specific overt act is attributed to them. In fact, the petitioners have not violated any terms of contract rather the informant himself cheated the petitioners. In this regard, earlier the petitioner, Manoj Kumar Singh has lodged a complaint being case No. C-317 of 2015 against the informant, which is evident from annexure-3. Hence, the petitioner deserves the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Learned A.P.P. for the state has opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the petitioners have cheated the informant and have taken Rs. 700,000/- from the informant.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail of these petitioners. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of these petitioners is rejected.
