CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-07-2017

None appears on behalf of the petitioner. However, learned AC to SC-16 appears on behalf of Respondent Nos. 1 to 4.

The present writ application has been filed for a direction to respondent authorities to grant two months' time for removal of the stairs, constructed on public land, being used by M/s Chanda Mama Cloth Shop, which belongs to the petitioner, situated at Gola road Main Bazar, Sonpur, District-Saran.

It is submitted by learned AC to SC-16 appearing on behalf of Respondent Nos. 1 to 4 that on 07.07.2014, the date of filing of the writ application only prayer was made for granting two months' time for removal of the encroachment, hence, by virtue of the nature of prayer made, the writ application has now become infructuous.

A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of Respondent Nos. 2 to 4 taking the stand that the petitioner has not disputed that the stairs have been constructed on a public land and only prayer in the writ application has been made for grant of two month's time for removal of the same.

In the circumstances, the writ application is disposed of as having become infructuous.
