CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL
ORAL ORDER

4 07-08-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

Petitioner is languishing in custody since 17.04.2017 in connection with Nokha P.S. Case No. 102/2016 for offences punishable under Sections 302, 201, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case, as lodged by the informant, is that his sister was married to one Ajay Choudhary and there was dispute between the brothers of her husband and his sister regarding family property of the matrimonial house. It is further alleged that the husband Ajay Choudhary had informed telephonically to the informant that he had killed his daughter and hence the informant alleged that all the in-laws of his sister have killed her and his 1½ year old nephew.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that he is the brother in law (bhainsur) of the deceased and no overt act has been committed by him. He submits that the husband Ajay Choudhary in his confessional statement has confessed his guilt stating that he killed his wife because she was having love affair with some other persons. He further submits that the husband of the deceased is in custody and that charge-sheet has already been submitted, hence, there is no chance of tampering with the prosecution evidence.

However, learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances and the materials on record, let petitioner, above named, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Sri Abhai Srivastava, learned Sub-Judge-IX cum Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rohtas at Sasaram, in connection with Nokha P.S. Case No. 102/2016.
