ORAL ORDER

3 08-11-2017 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India seeking quashing of an order, dated 24.06.2016, passed by learned Sub-Judge-XII, Vaishali at Hajipur in Title Suit No. 71 of 2000, whereby a petition filed on behalf of the petitioner to issue Dasti summons to the Vice Chancellor and the Registrar, Kameshwar Singh Sanskrit University, Darbhanga for giving evidence has been rejected.

It is settled by now by repeated pronouncements of the decisions of the Supreme Court followed by this Court that a power under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is to keep the Courts bound within their jurisdiction.

The impugned order does not suffer from any jurisdictional error. Since the petitioner shall have the remedy, if any, failure of justice occasions because of the impugned order at appropriate stage, I am not inclined to entertain this application in a proceeding under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

This application is, accordingly, dismissed.

The liberty as indicated goes without saying.
