Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned

Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Sadar Police Station Case No. 169 of 2017, disclosing offences under Sections 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 and 472 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there is general and omnibus allegation against this petitioner and no specific overt act is attributed to him. In fact, the petitioner has paid the amount against the purchase of petrol and diesel. So far dishonour of cheque of Rs. 100000/- is concerned, the same has been dishonoured due to technical reason and this fact has been supported by the letter issued by the Branch Manager concerned, which is evident from annexure-2. Hence, the petitioner deserves the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 vehemently opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that a sum of Rs. 34, 23,378/- is still outstanding before the petitioner and he is not ready to pay the same.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of this petitioner is rejected.
