CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 18-03-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

Petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No.13300 of 2014 registered under Sections 323, 341, 354, 504 and 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation in brief is that the petitioner along with others entered inside the house of the informant and made an attempt to commit rape and outraged her modesty; when the informant raised alarm, petitioner escaped away.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that due to some land dispute, this petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case; moreover the petitioner also lodged a case on 23.9.2014 against the informant of the present case and other co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail by the court below.

The allegation of outraging her modesty and making attempt of rape is specific only against this petitioner and there appears no tangible material on record to show any land dispute.

Having considered the said facts and circumstances, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected. However, if he surrenders and seeks regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order.
