CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 23-06-2017

From the supplementary affidavit filed by the respondents on 19.06.2017, it is seen that the case of the petitioner for grant of promotion has been considered and the petitioner is found ineligible for promotion and, therefore, his claim has been rejected. Once the respondents have considered the claim of the petitioner in accordance to the Scheme applicable and say that the benefit cannot be extended, no further indulgence can be made in a contempt application. In case, the petitioner is aggrieved by the reasons given by the respondents for holding him ineligible that gives a fresh cause to the petitioner to challenge the subsequent action but the for the same, action for contempt proceedings cannot be taken.

With the aforesaid, this application is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner challenge the action holding him ineligible for promotion.
