HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SUDHIR SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date: 03-05-2017

Seeking exception to an order dated 24.3.201 passed by the learned Writ Court in C.W.J.C. No.4296 of 2015, this appeal has been filed under Clause 10 of the Letters Patent.

Keeping in view the nature of grievances made by the petitioner and finding the appointment to be under a non-statutory scheme and not an appointment for service in the Government, the learned Writ Court has not committed any error in refusing to interfere into the matter for payment of the so called salary to the petitioner which is nothing but honorarium for the work discharged.

In case the petitioner has any grievance, the petitioner may submit a claim to the District Education Officer, respondent No.4, in the original writ petition and the respondent No.4 shall settle his claim in accordance with law by a speaking order within a period of three months of its presentation.

With the aforesaid, the appeal is disposed of.
