CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

5 21.09.2011 The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with

Sikandara P.S. Case No. 143 of 2016, registered for offences punishable under Sections 328 and 304B/34 of Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner is husband and allegation against the petitioner is of causing dowry death of the deceased.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that admittedly the marriage was solemnized eight years ago and, therefore, there is no applicability of Section 304B of Indian Penal Code and charge-sheet in this case has also been submitted under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code. It has further been submitted that in fact the deceased committed suicide as she had some dispute with her gotani, for which she had lodged a case against her and she used to be depressed. Further petitioner has been in judicial custody since 04.12.2016.

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that some witnesses has supported the case of prosecution that petitioner and his family members has administered poison to her and viscera report also shows that poisonous substance was found.

Having heard both sides, considering the fact and circumstances of the case and nature of allegation, at this stage, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail, his application for regular bail is, accordingly, rejected.

However, the trial court is directed to expedite the trial and try to conclude it within a period of six months and if the trial is not concluded within the aforesaid period, petitioner may renew his prayer for bail in the Trial Court itself.
