CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

and

HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. NILU AGRAWAL

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI)

Date: 22-02-2017

A desperate effort has been made by the appellant in the appeal to overcome the concurrent findings of fact that the appellant is not a boundary raiyat of any of the vended plots of land in relation to which an application for preemption was filed.

There are four sale deeds against which the appellant filed applications. He lost before all the forums i.e. the D.C.L.R., the Additional Collector, Member, Board of Revenue and then before the learned single Judge, who concurred with the findings given by all the authorities with regard to the appellant not being a boundary raiyat.

With the findings what it is, there is no reason for this Court to set aside the order of the learned single Judge in appeal on the submission made by the learned counsel for the appellant that a mischievous kind of report was obtained from Karamchari to defeat the right of the appellant before the D.C.L.R. The whole issue cannot be re-opened at this juncture.

Appeal is dismissed.

The submission of the counsel for the appellant that if he makes an application for refund of the money deposited with the authorities for the claim of preemption, the same should be processed and returned.

It goes without saying that it is his right to claim his refund and the authorities have an obligation to do so within a reasonable time preferably within three months.
