and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY

ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

3 04-07-2017 Learned Writ Court and the Appellate Tribunal found that even though in the selection process the appellant was found meritorious and participated in the counselling but after counselling, when it was found that certain circular of the State Government, particularly the time-frame for conducting the selection process was not adhered to, after counselling the entire selection process was abandoned and once abandoned, the Tribunal and the Writ Court were not wrong in their approach in denying the relief to the appellant. We see no reason to interfere into the matter.

The appeal is dismissed.
