CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 01-09-2017

Learned counsel for the parties are present.

It is stated by Mr. Rohitab Das, learned Assisting Counsel to Additional Advocate General No.10 that the order of suspension of the petitioner has been revoked on the conclusion of the disciplinary proceeding which has resulted in imposition of minor punishment. The order also stipulates that the petitioner would not be entitled to any other allowance other than the subsistence allowance drawn during the suspension period.

Considering that the writ petition was filed questioning the order of suspension and while during the pendency of the writ petition final orders have been passed in the disciplinary proceeding which order also revokes the suspension of the petitioner, the prayer in so far as the present case is concerned has been rendered infructuous and the writ petition is disposed of giving liberty to the petitioner to question the punishment order in an appropriate proceeding.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
