.... Opposite Party

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Rajesh Kumar
For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Akhileshwar Dayal

The accusation is that in the evening of 05.11.2016, informant's wife along with her ailing daughter Anjali Kumari came at the clinic of petitioner, where medicine was injected by the petitioner, then the condition of daughter of the informant become serious and thereafter, she was rushed to Rahmaniya Hospital, Motihari at the vehicle of the petitioner, where the daughter of the informant was declared dead.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it would appear from the F.I.R. that the case will not come under the purview of Section 304 I.P.C. rather the case is made out under Section 304(A) of I.P.C.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the petitioner, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, his prayer for grant of anticipatory bail stands rejected. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court within four weeks and pray for regular bail, which would be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
