ORAL ORDER

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Khajekalan P.S. Case No. 270 of 2016 registered under Sections 363 and 366(A) of the Indian Penal Code, pending in the court of the S.D.J.M. Patna City.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, in fact, there was love affair in between the petitioner and the daughter of the informant and she left her parental house according to her sweet will, but latter on, in the pressure of her parents she stated about her enticing away by this petitioner and committing rape upon her.

On the other hand, learned A.P.P. submits that petitioner committed rape upon the minor daughter of the informant and in medical examination, her age has been assessed in between 14 to 16 years.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the petitioner, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, his prayer for grant of anticipatory bail stands rejected. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court within four weeks and pray for regular bail, which would be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
