HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date : 18-12-2017

In the matter of award of contract to the appellant, one of the conditions in the contract was that the prospective bidder should have property in his name. The property tendered by the appellant was in the name of joint family and the petitioner was seeking contract in his individual capacity as property of Sai Traders Gurhatta, Patna City. The learned Writ Court found that as the petitioner was seeking award of contract in his individual capacity as a proprietor of the firm, he cannot give an affidavit with regard to the property being joint family property. Finding in rejecting the offer of the appellant on the ground that he did not have property individual in his name, we find no error committed by the Department and the learned Writ Court. The appeal stands dismissed.
