CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI
SHARAN SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 10-01-2017 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the State.

By an order, dated 02.04.2016, passed in Criminal Appeal No. 05 of 2016, the learned Sessions Judge, Araria, has set aside the order of the Juvenile Justice Board, Araria, and granted bail to Opposite Party No. 2.

The present revision application has been filed by the informant of the case against the said order, dated 02.04.2016, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Araria.

On the date of passing of the impugned order by the learned Sessions Judge, Araria, the Opposite Party

No. 2 had remained in remand home right from the very beginning.

Learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that Opposite Party No. 2 is an accused of commission of offence punishable under Section 376 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3 and 4 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offence Act, 2012, and considering the gravity of the offence, learned Sessions Judge, Araria, ought not to have given him the privilege of bail.

From the order passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Araria, I find that he had taken into account the report of the Probationer Officer for giving him privilege of bail.

I do not find any reason to interfere with the said order. This application has no merit, which is accordingly dismissed.
