The basic accusation is of torture and performance of second marriage.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner admits his marriage with the informant on 10.12.2003.

On joint prayer of the parties, this court vide order dated 17.1.2017 referred the matter to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of the State Legal Services Authority. The report of the Mediator dated 9.2.2017 at Flag - B reflects that the issue has been reconciled between the parties and both sides have decided to part ways. The petitioner agreed to make payment of Rs.1,11,000/- to the informant in four installments within one year. The payment of first installment has been made on 6.3.2017, thereafter the next installments will be paid on 6.6.2017, 6.9.2017 and 6.12.2017 respectively. Learned counsel for the O.P. No. 2 does not controvert the above contention of learned counsel for the petitioner and admits that the first installment of agreed amount has been received by the O.P. No. 2, hence he is not opposing the prayer of the petitioner for anticipatory bail.

Considering the present stand of the parties, let the above named petitioner be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of twelve weeks from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned JM Ist Class, Udakisunganj, Madhepura, in connection with Chausa P.S. Case No. 68 of 2012 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
