CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR ORAL ORDER

3 29-11-2017 Heard Sri Dharendra Nath Jha , learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Madan Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

This is third attempt for grant of bail on behalf of the petitioner. Learned counsel for the petitioner again tried to persuade the Court that there is no direct evidence against the petitioner save a except the fact that from inside jail telephonically he had given some instruction , however he admits that trial has already commenced and two prosecution witnesses have been examined till date. Besides hearing, I have perused the materials including the first order whereby his prayer for bail was rejected. The prayer for bail of the petitioner was rejected primarily on two grounds. Firstly, in the F.I.R. there was allegation that from inside jail telephonically petitioner had threatened and thereafter, occurrence had taken place in which one person died and one received serious injury. Second ground for rejection was that the petitioner was accused in about fourteen cases. Considering the fact that on merit prayer for bail was already rejected and the fact that before the trial court evidence is going on, there is no reason to review my earlier order. The prayer for bail again stands dismissed.
