CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN
ORAL ORDER

3 10-05-2017 Heard Mr. Mukul Prasad, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr. Durgesh Nandan, learned Additional Advocate General No.14 for the State.

None had appeared for the petitioner when the writ petition was taken up for consideration and the Court taking note of the contest has dismissed the case of the petitioner for regularization, inter alia, by observing that the service of the petitioner was disapproved as back as in 1983 itself and thus he had no case for regularization. The opinion was expressed on the basis of the stand taken by the State in the counter affidavit which had not been contested by the petitioner by filing a rejoinder.

The present review application has been filed assailing the issue on merits which is beyond the scope of a review jurisdiction even if an appellate remedy may be available to the petitioner. The petitioner, if so advised, may exhaust the same.

No cause for indulgence in the review application is made out and the civil review application is accordingly disposed of.
