This application for anticipatory bail arises out of C.A.
Case No. 2179 of 2015, disclosing offences under Sections

Act.

Seen the report of the learned Mediator from which it appears that the parties have resolved their dispute amicably.

The petitioner is the husband of Opposite party No.2.
It is evident from the materials on record that matrimonial discord between them is the root cause for registration of the First Information Report. No purpose will be served, if the petitioner is taken into custody.

It is submitted that the petitioner shall present himself before the police as and when required and there is no chance that he will tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses.

Considering the nature of dispute involved and the submissions advanced on behalf of the petitioner, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioner above-named in the event of his arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the Court below be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Katihar in C.A. This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
