CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 26-04-2017

Keeping in view the fact that petitioner only represented to the department and did not file any document to show that as to who was the person under imprisonment, and various other particulars related to the person, it is not appropriate to initiate action for contempt. The petitioner was directed to demonstrate certain things before the Union of India and merely by filing a representation (Annexure-2), the petitioner has claimed the benefit without filing sufficient documentary or other evidence in support of the representation.

That being so, for the present, in the given set of circumstances, it is not appropriate to initiate action for contempt. In case the petitioner submits relevant documents and evidence in support of his claim and thereafter submits a representation, the competent authority of the Union of India shall consider the claim of the petitioner and take a decision within a period of three months of its presentation.

With the aforesaid, the Contempt Petition stands disposed of.
