Order On Board

08/03/2017

Heard.

1. Challenge is to transfer order dated 30.07.2016 on the ground that the petitioner was subjected to transfer within a period of 8 months. It is also submitted that the petitioner is ailing from various disease.
2. The petitioner has filed this petition challenging the transfer order after more than 7 months. The only reason assigned for non-filing of the petition that the petitioner was not relieved. That could not be a ground to sit over the matter for such a long time. If the petitioner's grievance was that he is being shifted frequently, he ought to have come to the Court. In any case, the petitioner has been allowed to continue for another 7 months, that means, now one year posting is over.
3. As far as the personal ground is concerned, that is a matter of consideration by the transferring authority and his grievance may be considered and decided by the transferring authority by preferring representation. Therefore, at this stage, this petition is disposed off with the liberty to file representation only on the medical ground.
