Order On Board

12/04/2017

Heard.

1. The application for modification of the order of interim custody has been sought by making a prayer that the petitioner may be permitted to sell off the vehicle, which has been granted to the petitioner by way of interim custody.
2. This prayer cannot be accepted.
3. The property has been given to the petitioner by way of interim custody, therefore, the petitioner cannot be permitted to sell off the vehicle. The petition is misconceived in law and therefore, dismissed.
