Order On Board

27/07/2017

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the petitioner had obtained the degree of D.Ed. during the service in the year 1997 with permission on his own expenses, his case is similar to those teachers who have been granted two advance increments vide order dated 12/11/2014 (Annexure P/3) on the basis of order passed in WPS No.1485/2013 (Kedarnath Agrawal vs. State of Chhattisgarh) vide order dated 12/12/2013.

Learned State counsel would submit that the claim of the petitioner shall be scrutinized on the basis of judicial order of this Court and subject to satisfaction that the case of the petitioner is similarly situated, appropriate relief as may be available to him would be granted.

3. In view of above, I am not inclined to keep this matter pending. This petition is finally disposed off with a direction to the Assistant Commissioner, Tribal Development, Narayanpur to examine the case of the petitioner on the basis of order dated 12/12/2013 passed in WPS No.1485/2013 (Kedarnath Agrawal v. State of Chhattisgarh) and if the petitioner is found to be identically situated, same benefit shall be extended to the petitioner which have been granted vide order dated 12/11/2014 from the date of passing of D.Ed. examination.

4. With the aforesaid observation, this petition is finally disposed off.
