Order on Board

27/11/2017

1. The applicant has preferred this bail application under Section 439 of Cr.P.C. in connection with Crime No.232/2014 registered at Police Station Basna, District Mahasamund (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 420, 467, 468 & 471 of I.P.C.
2. Present applicant is in jail since 07/08/2017.
3. The counsel for the applicant submits that, the present applicant is a married lady, aged around 31 years. He further submits that, as per the prosecution case, the only allegation against the present applicant is that of manipulating her 12th standard marksheet so as to get the employment as an Assistant Teacher Panchayat and got the employment at the Adarsh School, Basna.
4. The State counsel however opposing the bail application submits that, it is a case where the present applicant has manipulated the documents in a manner to get the employment which otherwise she was not eligible for and that by virtue of manipulation, she was also successful in getting the employment and also have worked for sometime and when the mis-conduct later on was detected on an enquiry, the employment has been terminated and therefore prayed for the rejection of the appeal.

5. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly, taking note of the fact that the present applicant is a lady, aged around 31 years and that she has already remained in custody for about more than 3 months and the fact that, the chargesheet has already been filed, there is no further requirement of any interrogation from the present applicant.

6. Therefore this Court is of the opinion that, prima-facie, a strong case has been made out for grant of bail to the present applicant.

7. Accordingly, the application for grant of bail is allowed. It is ordered that the applicant shall be released on bail on her executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Trial Court. The applicant shall thereafter appear before the Trial Court on each and every date given by the said court.
