Order On Board

30/11/2017

Heard.

1. The applicant has been arrested in connection with Crime No.274 of 2017 registered at Police Station- City Kotwali, Raigarh, District Raigarh (C.G.) for the alleged commission of offence under Section 376(2)(G), 342, 365, 394, 323, 506 of IPC.
2. Case of the prosecution is that the applicant and other co-accused committed rape on the prosecutrix.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is in jail since 24.05.2017, investigation is complete, charge sheet has been filed. According to learned counsel for the applicant that in the FIR or in the diary statement, the prosecutrix has not alleged that the applicant committed rape on her. He would submit that the trial Court has also framed charges against the applicant for commission of offences other than 376 IPC. Lastly, it is submitted that other co-accused of the case namely Banti Singh has been granted bail by this Court.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State has opposed the bail application and submits that there are serious allegation against the applicant and other co-accused that they are taken the girl to a particular place and it is alleged that she is subjected to rape and even if charges have not been framed for commission of rape against the applicant, considering that the applicant was involved with other accused, the applicant may not be granted bail.
5. Taking into consideration the submission of learned counsel for the parties, particularly taking into consideration the submission that in the case of the prosecution, it was never alleged that the applicant committed rape and further that while framing charge, the applicant is not alleged to commit offence under Section 376 of IPC and co-accused Banti Singh has been granted bail by this Court, the application is allowed.
6. It is directed that the applicant shall be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- along with two local sureties for the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court with following further conditions:
 - (i) The applicant shall not act in any manner which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial; and
 - (ii) The applicant shall appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court till disposal of the trial.
