Order on Board

22/11/2017

1. Present is an appeal under Section 30 of the Workman Compensation Act, 1923 challenging the award dated 27/10/2004 passed by the learned Additional Commissioner, Workman Compensation Act, Labour Court, Raipur in Claim Case No. Cat-B-99/W.C.Act/99/N.F.

2. Vide the impugned award, the Tribunal in an injury case has awarded a compensation of Rs.71,724/-.

3. It is a case where the claimant-respondent No.1 has got his right hand amputated from the wrist portion as a result of the accident that occurred on 17/06/1999. The accident occurred when the injured was cutting the straw from the machine which was installed in the field of the present appellant.

4. The appeal is of the year 2006 and perusal of the record show, that there was no interim relief passed in favour of the present appellant and the learned counsel appearing for the appellant fairly submits, that the amount has already been disbursed to the claimant.

5. Taking into consideration the nature of the injury and the amount of compensation this Court does not find any good reason to entertain the appeal at this juncture after more than 11 years from the date of filing of the appeal.

6. The appeal thus stands disposed off.
