Order On Board

21/09/2017

Heard.

2. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that under the same recruitment process, the petitioner and many other persons, who were selected and appointed, were terminated from certain allegations of irregularity in the process of selection, which was subjected to judicial scrutiny by this Court in Writ Appeal No.484 of 2015 and batch of appeals, wherein enmass termination on the alleged irregularity has been found to be illegal and directions have been issued for reinstatement of the writ appellants in those cases. It is submitted that the petitioner was also a selected candidate in the same process of recruitment, which was subject matter of consideration in the writ appeals. Therefore, it is prayed that similar benefit may be granted to the petitioner.

3. Learned State counsel is not in a position to dispute the aforesaid submission that the petitioner was in any manner different than the case of those Steno Typist, who had filed Writ Appeals (W.A. No.484 of 2015 and batch of appeals), in which, orders were passed by the Division Bench of this Court on 18-02-2016.

4. Therefore, in these circumstances, this petition is also deserves to be and is accordingly allowed. Impugned termination order is hereby set aside and the petitioner be reinstated forthwith in terms of order dated 18-02-2016 passed by the Division Bench of this Court, as stated above.
