Order On Board

05/10/2017

Heard.

2. Upon instructions, learned counsel for respondents submits that in the earlier sitting of the Medical Board, case of the petitioners could not be placed, however, as and when Medical Board next convenes, case of the petitioners would be submitted for bare assessment.

3. In that view of the matter, at this stage, this petition is finally disposed off with a direction that the respondents shall place for consideration of petitioners cases before the next Medical Board examination. In case, the petitioner No.1 is found to be ineligible for appointment, it goes without saying that the respondents will have to proceed to provide other relief according to the relevant provisions of NCWA. All measures shall be taken to ensure that the exercise be completed as early as possible. In case, case of petitioners is not decided within a period of four months, they would be at liberty to revive the petition.
