Order On Board

14/09/2017

(1) The application filed by the petitioner under Order 9 Rule 13 of CPC for set-aside the ex-parte award has been rejected by the Claims Tribunal by order dated 17.04.2017 against which this writ petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioner herein.

(2) Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the impugned order is unsustainable and bad-in-law.

(3) I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

(4) The Claims Tribunal has clearly recorded a finding that no evidence has been led by the petitioner/Reliance General Insurance to support the application filed under Order 9 Rule 13 of CPC. The sufficient and valid reasons have been assigned by the Claims Tribunal in which I do not find any jurisdictional error in the impugned order.

(5) Consequently, the writ petition deserves to be and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
