Order On Board

01/09/2017

Heard on admission.

1. The petitioner is aggrieved by order dated 3.8.2016 passed by the Jila Panchayat by which junior of the petitioner has been promoted.
2. The order impugned is clearly appealable as provided under the Chhattisgarh Panchayats (Appeal & Revision) Rules, 1995. The petitioner, instead of preferring appeal, has filed this petition, therefore, the petition is not maintainable. In the absence of there being any extraordinary ground warranting interference by this Court without insisting on exhaustion of alternative remedy, in view of law laid down by the Supreme Court in the case of Whirlpool Corporation Vs. Registrar of Trade Marks, Mumbai (AIR 1999 SC 22).

3. Therefore, reserving liberty to the petitioner to take appropriate remedy under the law, the petition is dismissed.
