Order On Board

19/04/2017

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the subject matter of the writ petition is squarely covered by judgment passed by this Court in the matter of Narayan Shrivastava and others Vs. State of Chhattisgarh and others {W.P. No. 56 of 2000} decided on 12th April, 2007. He would submit that the present writ petition may be disposed of in the same terms.
2. Learned State counsel would submit that the petitioners may submit a representation and the competent authority shall examine the issue and if their case is similar to Narayan Shrivastava (supra), and the said order is still intact, their case may be considered in accordance with law.
3. In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the parties, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction that in the event petitioners prefer representations before the competent authority seeking relief on the ground of parity with the case of Narayan Shrivastava (supra) within a period of one month from today, the competent authority shall examine the matter and decide the representation by speaking order as early as possible, preferably within a period of three months from the date of submission of representations. In the event the competent authority decides the representation against the petitioners they would be at liberty to move afresh before this Court.
