Ram Kumar Yadav, son of Ranjit Yadav, aged about 46 years, R/o. Janjgir Bazar Para, Tahsil Janjgir, P.S. Janjgir, Civil and Revenue District Janjgir (C.G.) Defendant

---- Petitioner

Versus

Ramesh Kumar, son of Jagdish, aged about 23 years, R/o. Janjgir, Ward No.21 Bhatapara, Tahsil Janjgir, P.S. Janjgir, Civil and Revenue District Janjgir Plaintiff

---- Respondent

For Petitioner: Mr. N.K. Chatterjee, Advocate.

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board*18/09/2017

(1) Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner's / defendant opportunity to lead evidence has been closed as the counsel concerned was ill on the date of evidence and the suit is for the recovery of money along with interest.

(2) I have heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and perused the order impugned with utmost circumspection.

(3) Be that as it may, interest of justice will be served if the petitioner is granted opportunity to lead evidence and, therefore, the defendant is directed to keep all his witnesses present before the trial Court on 9th October, 2017 for their examination and on that day, the defendants will be examined and thereafter the trial Court would proceed further in accordance with law subject to payment of cost of ₹ 2,000/- payable to the plaintiff.

(4) With the aforesaid observations, the writ petition stands finally disposed of.
