Order on Board

Per Thottathil B. Radhakrishnan, Chief Justice

29/08/2017

On the basis of the materials furnished by the respondents along with the reply filed to the contempt petition, it can be noted that due action has followed on the order of the High Court though the amounts due are yet to be released through the Treasury. Therefore, recording that there is no contemptuous conduct on the basis of which further action should proceed, this case is closed without prejudice to the petitioner enjoying the benefits of the said order by receiving amounts through the Treasury concerned.
