Order On Board

17/07/2017

(1) Learned counsel appearing for the State would submit that the order for removing encroachment has already been passed by the competent authority.

(2) Since the order for removing encroachment has already been passed by the competent authority, this Court is not inclined to entertain the instant writ petition. However, the competent authority is directed to look into the same and proceed further in accordance with law.

(3) With the aforesaid observation, the writ petition stands finally disposed of.
