Order on BoardPer Thottathil B. Radhakrishnan, Chief Justice*31/08/2017

1. Defects are not cured in the appeal even now. Way back on 28.6.2016, the Appellant was granted two weeks time to remove the defects. It was also then ordered that if the defects are not removed within the time granted, the appeal shall stand dismissed for non-prosecution.

2. When the matter came up for hearing on 17.8.2017, the aforementioned order dated 28.6.2016 was noticed and by virtue of that, there is an automatic dismissal with efflux of time. Further adjournment was granted to the Appellant to verify the situation. Even today, the fact of the matter remains that the defects are not cured and the Appellant is seeking further adjournment.
3. The appeal stands dismissed by efflux of time as minuted in order dated 17.8.2017. Recording this, we hold that this appeal is dismissed in default.
