Order On Board

30/03/2017

1. Heard.
2. The grievance of this petition is that the demarcation proceedings are not being comleted despite repeated dates fixed by the respondents No. 4 & 5. He submits that even the Collector has directed demarcation but that has not been done for which the respondents No. 4 & 5 are responsible.
3. Without going into other aspects of the matter, considering the nature of grievance, this petition need not be kept pending. Respondents No. 4 & 5 are directed to carryout the demarcation proceedings positively within a period of three months and thereafter proceedings be disposed off in accordance with law, on the basis of demarcation report, which is pending before the Tahsildar.

4. With the above direction, the petition is disposed off.
