HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPURM.Cr.C. No. 6120 of 2017

Smt. Chameli Janghel, wife of late Shri Vinod Janghel, aged about 34 years, resident of Amatalab, Ramkund, P.S. Aazad Chowk, Tahsil and District Raipur (C.G.)

---- Applicant

Versus

State of Chhattisgarh, Through: Station House Officer, P.S. Aazad Chowk, Civil and Revenue District Raipur (C.G.)

---- Non-applicant

For Applicant : Mr. P.K. Patel, Advocate.
For Non-applicant/State : Mr. Aditya Sharma, Panel Lawyer.

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. AgrawalOrder On Board*14/11/2017

(1) The accused/applicant has moved this bail application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for releasing her on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No. 190/2017 registered at Police Station Aazad chowk, Civil & Revenue District Raipur (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of the Chhattisgarh Excise Act, 1915.

(2) Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that 5.760 bulk liters of illicit liquor was seized by the police from the present applicant.

(3) Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the crime in question as she has not committed any offence. He further submits that as the applicant is in custody since 11.09.2017 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, she may be released on bail.

(4) On the other hand, learned counsel for the State opposes the bail application.

(5) I have heard the counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

(6) Taking into consideration the condition incorporated in Section 59-A(ii) of the C.G. Excise Act, 1915, and bearing in mind the principles of law laid down in Banti Singh v. State of Chhattisgarh (M.Cr.C. No.6846 of 2014, decided on 05.01.2015), if the facts of present case are examined, it is apparent that only 5.760 bulk liters of illicit liquor has been seized from the applicant which is more than prescribed limit of 5 bulk liters, but looking to the fact that the applicant is in custody since 11.09.2017, case is triable by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, trial is likely to take some more time and further taking into account the nature and gravity of offence and plea raised by the applicant that she has falsely been implicated in case, I am of the opinion that present is the fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.

(7) Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed. It is directed that on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court for her appearance as and when directed, the applicant shall be released on bail, subject to following conditions:

- That, the applicant shall furnish a specific undertaking that while on bail, she will not commit any excise offence, otherwise bail granted to her shall be liable to be cancelled and shall co-operate with the investigation/trial.
- That, the accused/applicant shall make herself available for interrogation before the concerned Investigating Officer as and when required and the accused/applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer.

- That, the accused/applicant shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial.
