For Applicant:	Mr. Alok Bakshi, Advocate
For State	Mr. Ashish Surana, Panel Lawyer

SB: Hon'ble Shri Justice P.Sam KoshyOrder On Board*03.05.2017

1. The present application u/s 438 of the Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail has been filed by the Applicant apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No. 28/2016 registered by the A.C.B./E.O.W., Raipur whereby he has been charged for the offence punishable under Sections 13(1)(e) and 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.
2. Learned Counsel for the Applicant submits that though the raid conducted on the premises of the Applicant was in the month of April, 2016, the challan till date has not been filed. He further submits that from the documents which have been collected no incriminating material has been found. He further submits that the Applicant has been able to give the minutest details to justify the allegation levelled against him. Therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served if the Applicant is arrested in spite of all efforts being made by him.

3. The learned State Counsel however opposing the bail application submits that the investigation process is almost completed and that the investigating agency has also taken steps for taking sanction against the present Applicant for prosecution and the decision on the same is awaited.
4. Taking into consideration the nature of the allegation levelled against the Applicant and the offence for which he has been charged, in addition taking into consideration the submission made by the State Counsel, this Court is of the opinion that present is not a fit case where the Applicant is entitled to be released on anticipatory bail.
5. The MCRCA is accordingly rejected.
