First temporary bail was given to the applicant on 23.03.2017 for 30 days. Subsequently, he surrendered and thereafter again on the medical ground to provide treatment to his father, which was verified by the State counsel, again extension was granted on 21.07.2017 for the period of 3 weeks. Further, again an application for extension of 3 weeks time has been filed on the ground that in order to treat father of the applicant, he has been given appointment by the Doctor on 23.08.2017 at Delhi and the traveling arrangement has also been made. It is contended that the applicant is only a male member and no other male member is available in the house, therefore, for the last resort, bail may be extended for 3 weeks.

Perused the document Annexure A-6. The appointment of the Doctor and Railway reservation tickets. Considering the same, another 2 weeks time is extended from today. The applicant shall surrender positively on 30.08.2017.
